NEWBERRY WINS FIGHT FOR SENATE SEAT

SENATE ADOPTS THE SPENCER RESOLUTION AFTER BITTER DEBATE

Forty-Six Republicans Vote for the Resolution—Nine Republicans and Thirty-Two Democrats Oppose It—Senator Newberry Says That Result is Complete Vindication

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan tonight finally won his long fight for a seat in the United States senate.

The right to the seat was determined by the senate itself, which by a vote of 46 to 41 on a resolution sponsored by Republican leaders, asserting that Mr. Newberry was entitled to his seat.

All who voted for him were Republicans, while nine Republicans and 32 Democrats voted against him. Three senators were paired for and three against the resolution and three senators did not vote.

Added to the resolution declaring Mr. Newberry entitled to his seat and denying the claim of Henry Ford, the defeated Democratic contestant in the 1918 election that because of campaign expenditures Mr. Newberry was not entitled to sit in the senate, was a statement of public policy of which the senate severely condemned and disapproved.

RAILROAD HEADS ARE OPPOSED TO RATE REDUCTIONS

Two Complete Statements Before the Commission

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Two railroad presidents completed statements to day in opposition to railroad rate reductions, at the interstate commerce commission's investigation into the reasonableness of transportation rates and also underwent prolonged questioning from commissioners. William of the Baltimore & Ohio during a long exchange with Commissioner Esch insisted that lower costs of railroad operation could not be attained by abolition of passes for railroad employees, private cars for executives or similar alterations of policy because their relative importance was little.

S. F. Felton, President of the Chicago Great Western, however, in answer to questions from Commissioner Lewis, said that railroad costs cannot be reduced in the employment of labor until the railroad labor board which controls the labor transportation act allows them to establish rates of pay which correspond to the wages paid workers of similar occupations in the communities which the railroads serve.

For section hands, shop workers and the general run of employees whose occupation is not specialized Mr. Felton said wages are now appreciably higher than in enterprises outside.

"There would be little hope, indeed, for the railroads of the United States," he said in his general argument against rate reductions. "If now at the first signs of an ending to a period of depression the interstate commerce commission should require the reduction of rates of return which railroads are to be allowed on their property investment."

The decline in traffic volume during 1921, Mr. Felton said, was unprecedented in severity and proportionately greater than that which took place during 1914. Both he and Mr. Willard said that reductions of rates on specific commodities had so far failed to stimulate traffic.

Henry Ford has expressed the belief that railroad efficiency would be increased by lightning engines and equipment. Commissioner Esch remarked in a discussion with the witness of efficiency of operations.

"We've done exactly contrary to that theory in all railroad progress," Mr. Felton asserted. "Increasing the size of locomotives, adding to the weight of trains and reducing the number of train movements had been the subject sought. Indeed, in operating a single track line, with no money available for expansion I have found a temporary solution for different problems by double heading all freight trains and cutting the number of trains in half."

BRIAND TENDERS RESIGNATION AS FRENCH PREMIER

Came With Dramatic Suddenness After Address

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Aristide Briand today resigned from the premiership and Raymond Poincare former president of the republic will likely succeed him.

M. Briand's resignation came with dramatic suddenness in the chamber of deputies for the premier, returning this morning from his conference with the British prime minister at Cannes, had brought the opposing members of his cabinet into accord with his policies, and, by powerful speech in the chamber had apparently won over the greater majority to his side. His blunt eloquence evoked tremendous ovation and when he abruptly declared his intention of withdrawing from the government the members of the chamber seemed overwhelmed.

Although the retirement of Premier Briand was unexpected, it was apparent from the very beginning that he felt keen resentment against the many obstacles placed in his way in the important negotiations in which he has been engaged. He had the appearance of a man aged and physically fatigued throughout his entire speech.

Notwithstanding this, however, seldom has M. Briand risen to the high pitch of eloquence attained to day when in a voice trembling with ill-suppressed emotion and facing his colleagues on the ministerial benches he said:

"A statesman has no right to go to his post of battle if he has not the certainty that he shall receive bullets from behind."

With M. Briand went his entire cabinet and after conferring with the president of the senate and chamber, M. Millerand called upon M. Poincare for a new ministry. M. Poincare tentatively agreed to this, but asked for a few hours in which to consult his friends. He promised to give his final answer tomorrow.

M. Pert president of the chamber, before proceeding to the Elysee place said to the Associated Press correspondent and others:

"France is facing a situation which is as gloomy as the darkest days of the war. When the Germans were at Chateau Thierry, M. Poincare, then president of the republic overlooking former personal differences between himself and M. Clemenceau called the man whom the country demanded. Today, if as freely said, there are differences of opinion between President of the republic and M. Poincare, our president is a big enough man to forget them."

Rene Viviani former premier who was one of the French delegation at the Washington conference said:

"Under present circumstances the life of a statesman in France is impossible. I fully approve M. Briand's attitude, but we shall do our best to help his successor in the work of restoring France."

As is the custom M. Millerand has asked the members of the cabinet to continue to conduct the business of their departments until the new ministry is formed.

When the Associated Press correspondent called at M. Briand's modest apartment at 6 o'clock this evening, he was told by the maid:

"The president (Premier) sleeps; he is very tired."

Later in the evening after resting M. Briand met the newspaper men and told them that he was definitely out of power. Under present conditions he declared to "row in the republic's gallery."

Anyway, he added, "it would be adecent to remain longer than a year in power. It is just a year since Leguay cabinet fell. One can govern only with a solid majority it is not enough to have ones speeches applauded."

M. Briand expressed regret that the parliament and the country had not appreciated the value of the achievements at Cannes.

PRESIDENT ASKS BROAD POWERS ON NEW TARIFF LAWS

Request is With View of Meeting World Conditions

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Broad power asked for by President Harding in administering the proposed new tariff law with a view to meeting unusual and changing world conditions which could not be anticipated by congress would be granted under amendments to the Fordney bill proposed today by Senator Smoot.

The president would be empowered to increase or decrease tariff rates by not exceeding 50 percent of the rates fixed in the bill, to proclaim American valuation as the basis for assessing duties on any given list of imports, to change rates within the limit of 50 percent so as to meet situations arising in American markets as a result of depreciated foreign exchange; to prevent dumping in American markets and prevent discrimination against American foreign commerce by foreign countries.

Adjustment of rates to equalize differences in conditions of competition in trade of specified articles in the United States and competing foreign countries could be made only after investigation and hearing and would not be effective until within thirty days of their proclamation. Thirty days also would have to elapse before adjusted currency would come into effect and also before proclaimed American valuation could be put into force.

Besides these amendments Senator Smoot also offered an amendment to the American valuation section of the Fordney bill, proposing that where the duty is based upon or regulated in any manner by the value of the imported merchandise the duty would be assessed upon actual market value of the wholesale price thereof at the time of the exportation in the principal market or markets of the United States.

VALIDITY OF LAW WILL BE ATTACKED BY RUSSEL COUNSEL

Bondsmen of Mr. Russel Join in the Demurrers

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 12.—Attacks on the constitutionality of the state treasury law of 1908, under which State Auditor Andrew Russel served two terms as state treasurer, will be made in his defense in suits for accounting filed by Attorney General Edward J. Brundage against five former treasurers alleging shortages aggregating approximately $2,300,000.

This procedure was outlined today by Mr. Russel's counsel when demurrers against the Brundage bills were filed in the Sangamon county circuit court. Arguments on the demurrers are set for January 16. Mr. Russel's bondsmen for his two terms as state treasurer, joined in the demurrers.

The state auditor is named in two of the six civil suits in which Governor Len Small, Lieutenant Governor Fred E. Sterling, Edward E. Mitchell and William Ryan, Jr., as former treasurers are the principal defendants.

Action in the Small and Sterling suits will be postponed, it was said until disposition is made of the criminal conspiracy cases pending against them. The Mitchell and Ryan suits were filed in Cook county.

Attorney General Brundage was charged with quoting in his bills reference to methods of making deposits and collecting interest which "is not the law of the state."

Approximately 200 bondsmen of the five former treasurers are connected in the suits.

DETAILS IRONED OUT BY THE ARMS CONFERENCE

Give Up Hope, However, of Plenary Session

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Further details of both the naval and the Shantung negotiations were ironed out today, but the arms delegates gave up hope of a plenary session this week to announce definite results.

The "big five" completed its first revision of the naval convention and sent the text back to its legal experts for a re-draft meet again tomorrow and a virtually completed treaty may be ready for an executive session of the full naval committee on Saturday or Monday.

In the Shantung conversations further supplemental agreements were reached by the Japanese and Chinese and a new promise of progress on the central question of the Tsing-Tao Tsinan-Pu railroad was held out by a series of compromise proposals suggested informally by Secretary Hughes and Arthur Balfour.

Word of the resignation of Premier Briand of France created a stir in conference circles but the disposition in French quarters tonight was to minimize its immediate effects on the Washington negotiations. Among American officials in the conference however there was some apprehension that M. Briand's retirement might have a far reaching effect on the naval limitation program.

Included in the new treaty provisions not yet finally accepted in the informal conversations of the "big five" are understood to be the sections relating to disposition of scrapped ships and fixing a "status quo" for Pacific fortifications. On the former however the chief delegates are said to be in virtual agreement while in regard to fortifications, the instructions awaited from Tokio are generally expected to make an early settlement possible.

* Interest Aroused *

Altho described by delegation spokesmen as representing no serious divergence of views the discussions over methods of scrapping have aroused unusual interest among the naval experts. In their sub-committee report the experts recommended that permission be given for conversion of proscribed warships into other types of craft, and they have urged that the provision would represent a large financial saving.

Thus none of the five powers has at present a modern airplane carrier and the ratio agreement permits them to build from two to five each. If battleships partially completed but falling outside the list of retained vessels could be remodeled into airplane carriers types it is argued, much of the money already spent on hulls could be saved.

Opposed to this is the view that to convert discarded battleships into another type of war vessel would not be in accord with the animating purpose of the Washington conference. The question of defining the geographical scope of the Pacific fortifications article was described in authoritative circles today as largely a matter of finding the proper technical terminology to carry out decisions already reached.

JUDGE SHAKES DOWN SPECTATORS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Forty spectators in Judge Asa G. Adams' court of domestic relations left the court penniless today after Judge Adams summoned them before him and assessed each person what money he had on his person and told each to leave. The proceeds amounting to $5.60, went into the "junior cheer fund" for needy families brought into court. Many were penniless and were allowed to depart with a warning.

The morals court also declared war on sightseers and curious spectators a few days ago when it was announced that a picture of those who congregated to hear cases in the morals court would be printed in a newspaper each day. "To show the kind of men interested in such affairs," the judge said.

* AGRICULTURAL MEN TAKE UP MOVIES *

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 12.—D. O. Thompson, secretary of the Illinois Agricultural association and E. L. Bill, director of public utility resigned their positions tonight to assume charge of a new motion picture company which they have organized.

POLICE ARREST TWO SUSPECTS IN KELLOGG RESTAURANT HOLDUP

James and Arthur Miller, Brothers, are Arrested for the Crime Thursday Afternoon—Revolvers Taken from Kellogg Found in Miller's Home—Kellogg Identifies Men

With the arrest of James and Edward Miller, brothers, Thursday afternoon, the police believe the mystery surrounding the holdup and shooting of Amos W. Kellogg in his restaurant, 138 Illinois avenue, on the night of December 29 has been solved.

The entire day and night force participated in the capture of the two men at the home of James Miller, 337 Broadway Alley within a stone's throw of the police station. Arthur Miller was captured by Chief Kiloran and Officer Baker in the house while James Miller was taken in by Patrolmen McGinnis and Williams in North West street after he had jumped out of a window in his effort to get away. It was not until Officer Williams fired his revolver in the air that Miller stopped and surrendered. A loaded revolver was found on his person.

Ever since the robbery occurred Chief Kiloran and the entire police force have been working night and day on the case. For a time it was believed that the crime was committed by outside gunmen. A later tip started a local investigation and the result was the arrests yesterday.

It is without doubt one of the best pieces of police work that has ever been done in Jacksonville and the entire force is deserving of credit for the final result.

A few days ago the trail began to get warm and the police began close surveillance of the residence of James Miller in Broadway Alley. The place was watched day and night as it was desired to make the arrest when both men were at the place.

Yesterday Chief Kiloran believed he had enough evidence on which to hold the men. He then consulted with States Attorney Robinson who gave him the necessary legal advice in the matter. After the chief had told Mr. Robinson upon what he based his case the states attorney recommended that they go ahead and make the arrests when the opportune time arrived.

Shortly before 4 o'clock Chief Kiloran had his entire force both day and night men marshalled at the station for action and both men were reported in the Broadway Alley house. The chief has suspected James Miller of bootlegging and intended to use that as a subterfuge to gain entrance to the house in order that a search might be made for the two revolvers taken from Kellogg on the night of the robbery.

Patrolmen McGinnis and Baker were stationed in North West street opposite the Miller residence. Sergeant Trahey and Patrolman Blue were stationed in the barn on the rear of the city lot and near the residence.

Chief Kiloran and Patrolman Baker then went to the Miller residence and knocked. When the door was opened they phoned their way in rushing directly to the kitchen where they seized Arthur Miller. Capt. Elliott followed close behind in order to be in the house and search it after the prisoners were taken away.

However, James Miller was not in sight and in response to a question as to his whereabouts Mrs. Miller said he had gone to the grocery store. An open window made the officers suspicious and just then they were startled by a revolver shot. They did not know whether Miller had shot a policeman or whether he had been shot by one.

When they reached the front door they saw Patrolmen Williams and McGinnis approaching with James Miller who had been stopped in his flight by a shot fired in the air by Williams. The men were taken to the station and locked up.

Find Revolvers
A search of the house was then made. In a dresser was one drawer which was locked. The officers demanded the key but Mrs. Miller said her husband had it. A visit to the station secured the key. In the drawer was found two revolvers. One of these later was identified by Mr. Kellogg as one of the guns taken on the night of the robbery. This was a .22 calibre Richardson and Harrington with a long barrel. The other revolver was a 32 calibre Iver-Johnson with a short barrel. This was found on the person of James Miller when captured and also was identified by Mr. Kellogg.

After the arrest the men were taken separately to the Kellogg restaurant. Mr. Kellogg having been identified by the men as the man who had been shot at. (Continued on Page Four.)

PROCLAMATION OF KING FOR AMNESTY ISSUED THURSDAY

DeValera Says Will Begin Fight Against Election

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Jan. 12.—The king's proclamation of amnesty, announcement of the departure of the auxiliaries and resolution of the Sinn Fein executive council to summon an extra-ordinary convention for Feb. 7 to decide upon the future of the organization and its policy after Eamon DeValera had predicted a split in the organization were the chief developments in the Irish situation today.

Behind the Dail Eireann stand the Sinn Fein organization of nearly 1,500 clubs from every district in Ireland. It is responsible for the success for parliamentary and other elections and is regarded as the authentic popular voice by all Sinn Feiners. DeValera is still its president and all its machinery heretofore has been directed exclusively toward independent Republican aims.

The morning session of the executive body of the Sinn Fein was devoted to the election of a standing committee which meets in Dublin for all routine work of organizing. The election did not follow strict party lines but its membership will be canvassed throughout the country tomorrow to ascertain whether its influence will be used against the supporters of the treaty.

Mr. DeValera frankly faced the situation recognizing at the outset that within the organization there were two opposing forces, for and against the treaty. His idea was to secure a sort of temporary working arrangement as a basis for supporting the Dail cabinet while that body was acting in its capacity as authorized by the Republican government. He expressed the hope that there would be no bitterness and left the matter to the executive to debate.

The executive then the numerous delegates declared that the final decision regarding the future of the organization must rest with the voice of the people and it was proposed and carried that the whole question should be discussed not by the executive body merely but by a general convention. Committees composed of 300 delegates to be held in mansion house on Feb. 7. Mr. DeValera was pressed to admit that when the convention had decided the minority would be bound by the majority but he declared it was his opinion that a division was inevitable and his side would fight the other at the election for a free state. If the organization favored the election of representatives to a free state he would not continue to be president and would oppose such candidates.

One good thing about the second Arbuckle trial is that the newspapers are giving it comparatively little space. It was bad enough to have all the details spread abroad in public print in the first instance.

The Illinois Agricultural association took wise action in determining not to require pre-election statements from legislative candidates with reference to projects that the association favors. This thing of insisting that candidates for office shall declare their intentions on the various possibilities bilities of legislation can easily be overdone.

The discouragement of farmers is evidently not more than skin deep, for a government report shows the acreage of winter wheat planted this year is almost as large as that planted in the previous year.

The Quincy project to relieve the housing shortage is to build 50 houses at very low cost. Contractors have agreed to superintend the work and material men will make concessions. Now if the owners and laborers will also agree to cut prices there will be no trouble at all erecting houses at a low figure.

However, they must have cultivated a wonderfully altruistic spirit in the Gem City if the people are willing to work together on building projects with little or no profit to anybody concerned.

The Jacksonville police force has done an excellent piece of work in arresting men charged with the holdup at the Kellogg restaurant several weeks ago. The evidence against the men is so conclusive that comment on the case is not premature.
The holdup was such a bold affair that for a time it was looked upon as the work of experienced non-residents. But Chief of Police Kiloran and his associates followed up every clue and by clever work located and arrested their men.

AN UN-AMERICAN PRACTICE.
At a recent tariff hearing before the Senate Finance Committee it was divulged that a prominent chemical and fertilizer concern in this country had large affiliations with potash producers in Germany, and it appeared that this concern was doing its utmost to prevent the American potash industry from getting a protective tariff on potash in order that it could land its German potash free of duty and thus add to its profits at the expense of the domestic industry. One of its main arguments was that we could not produce potash in this country on a commercial basis, an assertion which Senator Reed Smoot categorically denied, substantiating his denial with reliable figures.
Some days ago the Manufacturers' Record, published in Baltimore, Maryland, and devoted to the upbuilding of agriculture and industry in the United States, made this surprising statement: "It is the madness of avarice that has persuaded American and other manufacturers to take advantage of German low costs. We have evidence before us that certain American wool interests had planned to send hundreds of millions of dollars worth of raw wool to Germany for manufacture, throwing thousands of Americans out of employment, and that their plan was prevented only by the enactment of the Emergency Tariff Act. They tell us that we can not sell to Europe unless we buy from Europe; but how are we ever going to sell to ourselves if we pay all our wages to foreigners?"
Other evidence has been adduced along the same line within the past year or so—certain domestic concerns planning to send their raw materials to Germany have them finished, or partly finished, and returned to this country after paying the German labor scale. Then they slip in at the Democratic duty rates and are put on the market at cut prices. Certain book publishing companies, for example, are reported to have sent their books abroad to be bound because they could get it done cheaper by foreign labor, and the low duty on bindings makes it profitable to pay the freight of the books both ways.

Deceased was a member of one of Jacksonville's prominent families and until ten years ago was resident in this city. During his residence here he was prominently identified with the business and political life of the city.
He was born in Cass county, near Philadelphia, October 9, 1852. But the family moved to this city many years ago and the family home was maintained at the corner of Hardin avenue and Chambers street.
In politics Mr. Sybrant was a Republican and was prominently identified with party affairs of the city and county for a long period. During the years from 1882 to 1885, both inclusive, Mr. Sybrant served as city clerk, the terms of office then being only one year.

Mr. Sybrant after retiring from the office of city clerk opened the Star lunch room on the north side of the square which he operated with success for a number of years before selling the business to A. C. Babanhausen.
About ten years ago the family removed to Rock Island where Mr. Sybrant and his son engaged in business. Some years ago he retired from active business and his son has since been in charge.
He was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Yock of this city, who is a sister of Mrs. Toussaint of East Court street. She survives together with four children: John, Lida, Louise and Helen. Sybrant, all of Rock Island. He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. C. L. Mathis, Mrs. George T. Douglas and Mrs. Alice Elder, all of this city. WOULD OPEN RIVER BRIDGE FOR TRAFFIC Meredosia Men Backing Plan to Improve Structure and Make it Available for Wagon and Auto Use—Conference Held With C. of C. Directors.

A committee of Meredosia citizens, accompanied by George Telling of Danville, came to Jacksonville Thursday evening for a conference with the directors of the Chamber of Commerce. The group of visitors included beside Mr. Telling, who is president of the Commercial Savings & Trust Bank of Danville, William Roegge, James Brockhouse, L. F. Berger,

C. P. Hedrick and Russell Brockhouse. The plan has been proposed of making approaches to the railroad bridge at Meredosia, planking it and thus making it available for general use. The Wabash railroad is willing to join in the plan and maintain it as a toll bridge if citizens are willing to meet the original expense for the work, estimated at $15,000.

The visitors, thru Mr. Telling as spokesman, explained that $5,000 of this sum was raised quickly in Meredosia Thursday and asked that the county board and the people of Jacksonville subscribe an additional $5,000. It was suggested that the other funds necessary can be secured from persons resident in the county and towns west of the river, and who would be greatly benefited by the establishment of a wagon bridge. The Jacksonville men listened with interest to the facts about the suggested improvement and agreed fully with the visitors that it would be a beneficial thing for Morgan county to make this improvement at Meredosia.

Conference With County Board
It was agreed that a committee from the Chamber of Commerce would attend the conference of the Meredosia men with the county commissioners next Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Representatives of the Automotive Association and the Morgan County Good Roads Association will also be in attendance.

The establishment of the proposed bridge would bring a great many people from the territory west of the bridge into Meredosia and no doubt to Jacksonville. It would also make the towns and country west of the bridge very much more accessible from the east side of the river.

The project has been talked of for years but it is only recently that a definite proposal has been received from the Wabash railroad. The enthusiasm of the Meredosia people was indicated by their liberal subscriptions yesterday, and it is understood that a still further sum can be raised there if necessary. Mr. Telling is interested in the project because he is a somewhat extensive land owner in the Meredosia area.

Compare Case With Lorimer's.
He made a lengthy comparison of the Newberry case with that of the ousting of former Senator Lorimer of Illinois and contended that the comparison was favorable to Mr. Lorimer.

"The question and the only question here," Mr. LaFollette declared dramatically "is whether a seat in the United States senate can be bought for a quarter of a million or a half a million dollars."

The last day of the fight brought a continuation of the conditions which prevailed practically all week. Efforts were being made continuously by the leaders to reach an agreement for a vote to get together and end the strain.

The first roll was accepted as decisive of the issue. It developed the position of several senators whose attitude had not been disclosed.

The change in the form of the majority resolution came just before the voting began. Senator Willis Republican Ohio offered and Senator Spencer Republican Missouri in charge of the Newberry forces accepted the proposal for a severe condemnation of the use of large funds as a substitute for the original clause declaring that the charges against Mr. Newberry were unfounded.

Democratic leaders contended that the change was made to secure a few more votes for Mr. Newberry.

Until the final vote was announced spectators thronged the galleries. Senator Newberry did not attend the session but members of his family were among the spectators in the galleries together with representatives of Mr. Ford.

PARK BOARD MAKES PLANS FOR SPRING

More Trees to be Planted in Central Park—New Areas Divided Into Fifteen Units.

Members of the park board met Thursday evening at the Brennan store on South Sandy street. The session was devoted to discussion of a number of important matters related to park development. One of the most important actions taken was with reference to Central park, where a number of young elms will be planted.

There are several broken soft maples in the park which were damaged by the recent storm, and they are to be removed and replaced with younger trees of another variety. It was also decided that wire fencing will be so placed in the park as to put a stop to the crossing at points where there are no walks. All efforts to prevent this thus far have been almost without effect and in order to save the grass the fencing will be in certain points.

Plans and estimates were received for the platting of Mauvaisterre Lake park into 15 units. It is the expectation of the board to follow the plan of finding individuals or organizations that will care for the expense of some certain unit. It is probable that some of the estimates made could be materially reduced by using shrubbery or younger growth.

The board has purchased flower seeds for use the coming spring and summer and the park is to have more flowers than ever before.

CARPENTIER WINS FIGHT WITH COOK

Ends Bout With Knockout in Fourth Round—Up to That Time Fight Had Been Fairly Even.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—George Carpentier, heavyweight champion boxer of Europe, won his match here tonight against George Cook, the Australian heavyweight. He knocked Cook out in the fourth round.

A straight left to the chin and a right to the jaw floored Cook for the count. He was up on one knee when the referee, Jack Smith, finished the count of ten, but was too late.

The weights were announced as Cook 159 pounds and Carpentier 170 pounds.

In the opening round Carpentier was the first to lead, scoring with both his left and right without a return. Considerable infighting followed in which neither man had any marked advantage. Cook took a nasty blow on the ribs, but himself scored well toward the close of the round.

Both men sparred cautiously at the beginning of the second round. Carpentier landed a left hook to the jaw and easily evaded an attempt at a counter. The Australian had the better of the infighting.

COLLEGES DO NOT NEED TO ADVERTISE FOR MORE PUPILS
Have More Applications Now Than They Can Handle

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—There is no need for colleges to advertise at the present time because most of them already have more applications than they can handle next year and many are paying too much attention to quantity and too little to quality, speakers at a banquet of the Association of American Colleges declared tonight.

"If colleges do advertise," Dr. Robert R. Kelly said, "they can supply plenty of opportunity to the ambitious writer. For example, the ads might say: 'Attend Centre College and play football; this will bring you $7,000 a year as a coach after you leave school.' Or, 'see Boston's historic spots—Lexington and the old south church.'"

Chancellor J. H. Kirkland of Vanderbilt University urged that colleges accept only the number of students they can actually handle and quit trying to break attendance records.

VIRGINIA MAN DIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Benjamin Donovan Met Death at Early Hour Thursday Morning When Automobile Turns Over.

Virginia, Jan. 12.—Benjamin Donovan of this city met almost instant death at about 7 o'clock Thursday morning when an automobile which he was driving turned turtle about three-quarters of a mile east of the city. Donovan was enroute to the farm of Harry Bell where he operates a saw mill when the accident happened. It is not known what caused the accident but the car turned completely over. Donovan was pinned beneath the car in such a way that his neck was broken.

Coroner Saunders held an inquest at 11 o'clock and after hearing the evidence a verdict of accidental death was returned.

The deceased was about twenty nine years of age and unmarried. He had been boarding at the home of Mrs. Frank Gaines in this city.

The deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Donovan of Prentice; three sisters, Mrs. Charles Holbrook of Prentice; Misses Minnie and Rose Donovan at home, and five brothers, Fred and Joseph of Virginia, Edward and Roy at home and Theodore of Philadelphia. One brother, Jack Donovan, is now deceased.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT NEAR CHAPIN

Young Men Hosts to Friends at Home of Irwin Aufdenkamp—Other News From Chapin Vicinity.

Chapin, Jan. 12.—A very delightful social event occurred Wednesday night when Irwin Aufdenkamp, assisted by a party of young men, entertained a number of their girl friends at the country home of Irwin Aufdenkamp. The evening was pleasantly spent playing Rook and other games. Delicious oyster soup was prepared and served by the young men with the usual accompaniments of pickle, celery and crackers but the mince pies, also served were too much for the amateur cooks and they were baked by their friends. Those present were Misses Vivian, Mary, and Martha Alderson, Herman Fahlbusch, May Fouts, Amy Moody, Bertha Coas, Edith Fox, Messrs. Henry Vornheim, Harold Jedsbury, Edwin Dietrick, Earl Smith, Clifford Cowdin, Clay Keller, Lee Fox, and Irwin Aufdenkamp. Mr. Henry Alderson and Charles Oberste acting as chaperons.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark and son, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ham, Mrs. F. P. McKinney, Mrs. W. W. Woodward, Mrs. Ben Smoth, Miss Amy Onken, John Onken, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nienhuuser, were among the Jacksonville visitors Thursday.

Mrs. J. F. Brownlow went to St. Louis Wednesday for a short visit.

WOULD ABOLISH TOWNSHIP TREASURER
Springfield, Ill.—By The A. P.—Abolishment of the office of township treasurer is advocated by Charles McIntosh, superintendent of schools of Platt county and treasurer of the Illinois State Teachers' association.

Illinois should centralize its school fund treasuries in the office of the county treasurer as the tax collection system was consolidated, Mr. McIntosh holds. This system would save approximately $250,000 per year to the school funds, he estimates.

"The modern tendency in government service is to abolish the smaller offices when possible," he said, "and consolidate the duties of several small offices into one. Governor Lowden won much favorable comment by his reorganization of the State departments which was essentially a plan of consolidation. The township collector has been abolished and we have found that not only have the taxes been collected just as well and at much less expense, but also that this has been done just as conveniently for the people."

"In harmony with this general movement is the plan to abolish the township treasurer, and have all the school funds of the county kept by the county treasurer."

TWENTIETH CENTURY CIVILIZATION HAS COME
Sydney, New South Wales—(By A. P.)—Twentieth century civilization has come to Tonga, the "paradise tale of the South Seas, which is one of the few remaining native kingdoms, and the laborers are striking for 12 shillings a day for loading and unloading vessels, according to Captain Jensen of the Schooner W. H. Smith, which reached here with a cargo of copra.

He said he had been delayed six days at Vavau because of a strike.

"The natives will work only on their own terms, and compromise or negotiation is impossible," he said. "When I was ready to load, spokesmen for the natives told me they wanted 12 shillings a day, I thought that too much but they refused to listen to me. They are not obliged to work, apparently, and do nothing daily except sing and play."

Other labor was obtained to load the vessel eventually, he said.

CAIRO ASKS STATE TO AID
Cairo.—(By A. P.)—Mayor Wood of Cairo has appealed to Col. C. R. Miller of the State Department of Public Works for aid in repairing the Mound City road out of Cairo, which is declared to be utterly unpassable. Lack of proper drainage has caused the trouble, Mayor Wood said.

FLAG STAFF BREAKS MEETING DISPERSED
Decatur.—(By The A. P.)—Railroad men meeting in the Woodford street yard office of the Wabash railroad were hurriedly dispersed when a ninety foot flag staff broke in the wind and crashed down upon the roof of the building. No one was injured.

How to Care for Your Eyes

Eyestrain is one of the most insidious evils of the times. Hard usage, bright lights, nervous tension—all put too great a load upon the eyes.

The only safeguard is to wear the proper glasses as soon as you need them—possibly for a short time only.

Have Your Eyes Examined

The only safe plan is to have your eyes examined before this strain weakens the delicate nerves and muscles that control vision.

been able to leave the hospital Thursday. He positively identified the men as the two who wore masks and actually committed the robbery. Mr. Kellogg has told Chief Kiloran repeatedly that he did not believe he could identify the first man who was unmasked, as he had paid no particular attention to him after giving him a cup of coffee. He has maintained that he would be able to identify the men with the masks and did not hesitate when the Millers were taken to his place of business Thursday in saying they were the men.

Used Car In Getaway
It is the belief of the police that the men had a car parked in East North street in front of the Mackey grocery store on the night of the robbery. James A. Miller is the owner of a Saxon car and it is believed this was the car used in making the getaway after the robbery.

While the Millers have not been questioned by the police they both offered alibis. However they are so widely at variance that the police have no fear that they will be able to puncture them when the proper time comes.

James Miller the elder of the brothers is 22 years of age and is a cigarmaker by trade. Arthur Miller will be 17 years of age February 21. He lives with his mother at 332 Yates street.

However, since the robbery the police say that he has spent most of his time at the home of his brother where he was arrested yesterday.

The men will be arraigned this morning on the charge of robbery.

PIG CLUB MEMBERS GUESTS OF L. A. REED

Schools Listened to Informing Address on Swine — A Very Profitable Occasion.

Members of the various pig clubs and agricultural students were guests yesterday at farm of Lester A. Reed a few miles north-east of Jacksonville. Mr. Reed has a wide reputation as a breeder of pure bred Duroc Jersey hogs and he is often consulted on questions relating to swine.

Various questions have been propounded to him, not only by members of the club but by instructors in agriculture and animal husbandry throughout the county, and it was this fact that led Mr. Reed in arranging for the general meeting yesterday.

There were 50 or 60 boys in the group, together with a number of men, and they assembled at the Reed farm at 12:15. A generous lunch was served at 12:30 and the program of the day was commenced.

Blackboard Used.
Mr. Reed gave an address on production of swine, illustrating his remarks with blackboard drawings. Before the lecture began several typical animals from the herd were brought in to the show ring. During the address the boys took notes for future use and at the conclusion there were some practical tests in judging.

Mr. Reed has for ten years past specialized with Duroc Jerseys and he has a name now which extends beyond the boundaries of the state. In addition to raising hogs he carries on extensive farming operations and this year the acreage under his control is not far from the 1,000 mark.

When the address was given yesterday J. L. Henry, an intimate friend of Mr. Reed's, assisted with the livestock and made occasional suggestions to the boys.

Mr. Reed began by saying that it used to be the thought that anybody can farm, but now it is quite well understood that only part of those who engage in farming do so successfully. He believes that this is a time for specialization in farming and gave some of his reasons for thinking so. The speaker said that swine could be divided generally into the lard and bacon classes. In the first class belong the Berkshires, Chester Whites, Durocs, Hampshires, Poland Chinas and Spotted Poles and Chinas while in the bacon class are the Yorkshires and Tamworths. In the corn belt area the natural preference is for the lard hogs.

The record of one thoroughbred litter was given to show how the pigs from one sow sold at a total of $1,497.50.

Fine Animal Show.
Mr. Reed then had his assistant, John Hogan, bring in Belgian Queen, the four year old sow which he purchased originally for $625, and several other of the best animals were shown. The speaker said that if a breeder desires to develop animals for show purposes or to sell as pure bred that he should be interested in a sire widely advertised and generally known, but if he is establishing a pure bred herd merely for ordinary commercial purposes that he should be interested first of all in the type of the sire.

Then in the most careful and painstaking way, based upon his years of experience, Mr. Reed went on to explain the feeding of swine and care, system of marketing, arrangements as to water and lots and diseases and the recording of animals. The most time was devoted to the important question of feeding, and Mr. Reed explained that the feeding system varies in accordance with the age and condition of the animal and the purpose for which it is being fed. A certain amount of minerals is essential and just now Mr. Reed is trying out vitamins with good success. He emphasized the absolute need of plenty of water.

Details were given as to the best feed for a sow at farrowing time and the proper manner for feeding the little pigs during the first days of their life, in addition to giving the feeding suggestions for pigs of larger growth.

Suggestions were made as to the best type of hog house and the difference was explained of feeding hogs for market and feeding others for show purposes. It was stated that hogs offered at public sale are usually in the very pink of condition and quite often after their purchase best results will be secured by reducing their weights slightly and giving special care in other ways.

Methods Explained.

The speaker displayed different tools that he used in marking hogs, in clipping their teeth and hoots and tools that are otherwise used in the care of the animals. The different values of alfalfa, clover hay, rye and blue grass pasture were pointed out. Considerable attention was also given to discussion of diseases which were put under five classifications: Worms, cholera, pneumonia, scours and lice. Mr. Reed said that there was no cure for cholera but that vaccination is a sure preventative and he told why in his belief some vaccinating does not bring entirely satisfactory results.

At the conclusion of the address various questions were asked and then came a period of judging in which the boys passed upon the points of some of the animals exhibited.

Mr. Reed's great herd is headed by Pathfinder Sensation a Duroc Jersey bred on the farm of Mr. Kerns at Staunton, Nebr. There are two other boars of almost equal fame among hog growers, and there are now between 30 and 40 sows ready for the spring farrowing.

As a general proposition Mr.

Reed has 200 or more head of hogs of all ages on the farm and occasionally the number runs as high as 400. He keeps nothing but pure bred stock and as already indicated, his reputation as a breeder of Duroc Jersey stock has made a demand for animals from his farm from a wide territory.

It was a good thing that the Illi-not pitted against Shurtleff College yesterday afternoon during the regular practice session for the blue and white team played miserable basketball and looked very much unlike the five which played such a fast and furious contest with St. Louis University and with Shurtleff College last Saturday night. Yesterday afternoon the men seemed to be afflicted with a serious case of "butterfingers." They acted as though they had never had a basketball in their hands. Their passing was miserable and their catching was worse than that. The ball was messed around the floor and the players were constantly mixed up in a wild scramble after it. The only commendable thing that can be said about the practice is that there was plenty of action and aggressiveness mixed up in it.

ILLINOIS GOOSE
KING QUILTS BUSINESS

Mansfield. — (By The A. P.)—
W. H. Firke of this place, known as the Illinois goose king, ate his last goose for New Year's day dinner with his family. This specimen of his once numerous flocks escaped from the car when he shipped his last long to the eastern markets a year ago. In recent years Mr. Firke had raised or bought hundreds of thousands of geese and fattened them for market. The last year, owing to disturbed business conditions, he decided to temporarily suspend his operations.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(By The

About
Sheffield
Plate

The average person is under the impression that "Sheffield Plate" is an Electroplated ware. Although many beautiful Sheffield designs have been imitated in this manner the genuine is not so made.

The true Sheffield plate, so much sought for and treasured by those who know, has the silver rolled on copper—never on nickel or white metal—and never Electroplated.

Sheffield plate is made by placing a sheet of copper and a sheet of silver together and passing through rollers, cold, under heavy pressure and from this the desired articles are cut. It is a more expensive process than electroplating, but is everlasting and more beautiful in results obtained. "Sheffield Plate" dates from 1784. Buy the genuine Sheffield and never can there be disappointment.

We shall be glad to show you pieces of this perfect ware.

TRY TO GET IN TOUCH WITH STUDENT BODY

That Is Purpose of Present Day College Organization—Must Be In Sympathy With Students and Their Problems.

CHICAGO.—(By The Associated Press.)—College organization is being changed to bring about more easily personal relationship between students and faculty, Dean Thomas Arkle Clark dean of men at the University of Illinois, told the Council of Church Boards of Education here recently.

Speaking of the "personal touch" in college, this veteran dean at the state university, who for 20 years has been working with Illinois boys, gave some of his observations of its helpfulness.

"To get into touch with any group of young fellows," Dean Clark said, "one must have sympathy for them, he must understand their problems and their temptations, he must have real interest in them, he must have a young heart at least even if he has an old head. He must remember, also, that the hearts of young people are pretty much the same as they always were even if customs are changing and the habits of young people seem to him very different from what they were when he was himself young. Most of us find it easy to preach to a crowd, but it is contact with the individual that ultimately counts most.

"For years I have been in my office pretty regularly six days in the week for at least eight hours a day. Anyone is free to come and see me there, or, if he prefers it, at my house after dinner or on Sundays. And they do come by the hundreds. They bring the petty inconsequential things that can be decided or settled in a few minutes, and they bring the things the settlement of which may make or wreck a life.

"There is no monotony and no two days are alike. There are the stories with which you are all familiar—the struggles with poverty and temptation and sin, and discouragement where faith must be strengthened and courage awakened and self-reliance developed; and opportunity discovered; there are the stories of love and disappointment, and each one of these problems is to the man who brings it real and vital."

ANTI-WHITE FEELING IS FAST INCREASING

Races Throughout Continent Are Getting Together—Propaganda Fostered by American Negroes.

LONDON.—(By the A. P.)—Anti-white feeling is fast increasing among the natives in various parts of Africa, states Reuter's in an article "based on documents and other evidence at first hand by authoritative British observer who has visited every part of Africa."

Reuter's information emphasizes the growing cohesion of native races throughout the continent. He says the strongest factor in the development of antagonism to the whites is "skilful propaganda fostered by an extreme section of American negroes."

"Circulars coming from Nationalist sources in India and Egypt and from Pan-Africa societies in the United States, translated in enormous numbers throughout Africa," the traveller states. "Booklets of 25 to 30 pages urge that the time has arrived for the black races to assert themselves and throw off the white yoke."

"It is only fair to say," adds the authoritative British observer, "that these are not received with universal sympathy, but the very unsettling effect is easily to be observed."

He has met it in the Union of South Africa, in French Equatorial Africa and in a lesser degree in Uganda, in Nyasaland, Belgian Congo, Abyssinia and Kenya. "It is wonderful the extent to which the war has produced fraternal feelings among natives but in present circumstances they tend to become anti-European," he continues.

The main reason is the growth of race consciousness throughout the world.

"The most effective remedy is an equitable system of land tenure guaranteeing to the native a stake in the country, protection from eviction by its own chief or local European interest and a system of higher education that provides something more than the three R's."

GERMANS ARE TRADING BY BARTER

BERLIN.—(By the A. P.)—In consequence of the low buying power of the mark, Germans are gradually reverting to trade by barter, or to counting commodities and articles as the real money unit.

It is reported from Pomerania that peasant farmers have pledged themselves to sell eggs and butter at prices measured in pounds of nails.

In Berlin, Persian carpets are regarded as money.

D. N. Cooper of Lynville was calling on the business men of Jacksonville yesterday.

SCANDINAVIANS TO HATE GOLD STANDARD

Stockholm.—(By the A. P.)—Representatives for the three Scandinavian central banks decided at a meeting just held here that endeavors should be made to reestablish an effective gold metallic standard, in Europe, even tho it should prove impossible for every currency to regain its former value.

A communique issued after the meeting stated that probably at the present time no country in Europe would be able to return to the gold metallic standard without the co-operation of the United States. The plan that seemed to offer the greatest chance of success was for England and the United States, in common, to take the first step toward the establishment of this standard.

When the first step out of the existing currency difficulties had been taken no great time would elapse before other European countries would follow.

So long as the value of the British pound had not been stabilized in relation to the dollar, the meeting considered that none of the Scandinavian countries would, unaided, be able to stabilize their kroner values in relation to the dollar.

The opinion of the meeting was that, until a fixed international measure of value had been obtained, every little country should abstain from all experiments with the stabilization of its currency.

RUSSIAN BALLET IS IN DANGER

Municipal Soviets Tire of Making up Deficits—Youth Does Not Count With Russia.

MOSCOW.—(By the Associated Press.)—Russia's greatest sport the ballet, is threatened with extinction. The various municipal Soviets are tiring of the deficit which they have to make up in order to keep the operas and the ballets going. Ballet and opera alternate in the big theaters. The ballet pays, but doesn't make enough profit to carry the opera and the great orchestras necessary to satisfy the music-loving Russians.

Ballerines are the subjects of endless discussion. Families break up over differences about the merits of Simirnova, Gelser, Gerdt and others who are now holding the spotlight in Petrograd and Moscow. To a lesser degree the same battles rages at Kazan and Kiev and Odessa. Just at the moment Lurkin is the hot favorite in Petrograd and Gelser in Moscow.

Youth and beauty do not count with Russian ballet fans. It matters not if the ballerina is old, in fact she generally has to be fairly mature before she can master the intricate steps upon which Russian spectators if she can spin fast enough on her toes and shift her weight from one big toe to the other at just the moment prescribed in the rules.

At first a foreigner is inclined to admire the beautiful young neophytes who dance mazourkas, and have all the charm which grace and flowing white robes can impart to youth dancing to the music of a superb orchestra. That is the result of utter ignorance.

Gelser, the strongly featured player of the Moscow circuit recently fell on the stage and had to beat a retreat before catcalls and howls which made it impossible for her to reappear for a fortnight. Russian ballet fans are as merciless as the crowds at a Spanish bull-fight. There are no excuses for failure.

MANY PIECES OF WOOD USED IN CLOCK

Peora, Ill.—(By A. P.)—More than a thousand small pieces of wood were used in making a wooden clock which Louis Hayden, an Austrian of this city, has just completed after two years of intermittent work. The device, he says, will register seconds, minutes, the day and date. It needs winding only once a year. It has seven movements, seventy-two gears and a pendulum eight feet long.

MANY GOLF LESSONS HAVE BEEN GIVEN

Golfers are Greatly Pleased With Instruction by Mr. Keywood—Instructor Giving Attention to Course.

More than one hundred municipal lessons have been given by the Municipal Golf indoor school since its organization on December 1st. J. Keywood the professional in charge of the school has given a number of lessons outdoors on pleasant days. Reports are that he is developing some excellent work among local golfers.

giving a great deal of attention to the local course, and is making clay molds of the various greens for presentation at the Municipal Golf annual meeting in February. Keywood is thoroughly experienced in this line of work, the most of his time being devoted in England to landscape architecture, grounds keeping and designing of estates. The local greens are giving him a good opportunity for the demonstration of his ability and he is hard at work on plans for the coming season.

The price of introductory golf lessons which have been given at $1.00 rate during the winter will be raised April 1st to $2.00. The committee announced that instructions will never be obtainable at the low price again.

The appearance of Keywood on the course on several good days this winter has been a cause for no end of comment and satisfaction on the part of the greens committee. Keywood is driving further than any one who has ever played the course, and is playing a better all-around game. The committee hopes to match him several times during the coming season with the Springfield, Decatur and Bloomington professionals.

FINAL DETAILS FOR BIG SALE

Display Cards Distributed to Co-operating Merchants.

The Trade Extension committee of the Chamber of Commerce met yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock and arranged the final details for the big January Clearance Sale. Members of the committee distributed penants and placards to the co-operating merchants and some of them spent the day posting bills throughout the surrounding territory.

It is interesting to note the large territory that is being thoroughly billed and advertised. This territory has for its outlying towns Palmyra, Winchester, Griggsville, Pittsfield, Beards-town, Virginia, Tallula and New Berlin. A large amount of advertising is being done in all of the papers in these towns, and all the cross-roads from Jacksonville to them are being billed.

PAYS BIG FINE

"I always thought if the doctors couldn't help my stomach and liver trouble, nobody else could. It has cost me nine hundred dollars and I have paid my fine. It remained for May's Wonderful Remedy to do the trick. I have been in the best of health since taking it more than a year ago." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

TRAMPS STEAL COAT OF CONCORD MAN

Roy Crouse a coal dealer at Concord reported to the police by telephone Thursday morning that two tramps had stolen a coat and bunch of keys from him and had boarded a Burlington south bound train for Jacksonville.

Sergeant Casey went to the junction and awaited the arrival of the train. He saw two men leave the train at Independence avenue and immediately gave chase.

The trail wound thru the First ward and Casey finally overhauled them near the McCarthy-Gebert cigar factory. They acknowledged taking the coat and said it was because they were cold. As Mr. Crouse did not want to prosecute the men were turned loose and told to get out of town as quickly as possible.

STOCK EXCHANGE HAS LIGHT DAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Business in the Stock Exchange today was moderate in volume and lacking in noteworthy features. The recent investment demand for government bonds and other high grade securities seemed to have temporarily run its course.

Stocks were firm at the opening reactionary during the intermediate period and irregular later. Failure of the local federal reserve bank to order further reductions of rediscount and interest rates was without more than passing influence on money rates. Call loans again held at 3 1/2 percent and many new time loans at 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 percent were reported.

The resignation of the French cabinet in which the question of German reparations evidently figured, occasioned some activity in remittances to Paris. Foreign exchanges as a whole, however, showed little unsettlement.

An unusually large gain of reserve liabilities was the chief item of interest in the Bank of England's statement. The report of the state bank of Germany showed no change in its gold holdings and note circulation, but credits and deposits were substantially lower.

Liberty bonds eased on realizing for profits, but closed at trifling gains and losses. Victory 3 1/2s at $100.25 and the 4 1/2s at $100.30 made new high records for a long period. Total sales, par value, aggregated $22,875,690.

CASH GRAIN REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Cash sales here today were 7,000 bushels of wheat, 555,000 bushels of corn, including 500,000 bushels to exporters, and 101,000 bushels of oats.

The cash corn basis was quarter cent better with No. 2 grades 4 1/2c under May. Country offerings increased on today's advance but were well taken. Shippers were free buyers. Today's sales here to exporters were in the main presumably a reflection of takings yesterday for Russian relief.

Car lot receipts, Wheat, 3; Corn, 375; Oats, 104.

IT'S FINE THING DECLARES BANE

Chicago Man Feels Every Bit as Strong as He Did Twenty Years Ago, He Says.

"Since taking Tanlac I feel every bit as strong, energetic and full of life as I did twenty years ago, and my work is a pleasure to me, for even long hours on a rush contract do not tire me out," was the statement made by Edward C. Bane, well known painter and decorator, living at 124 South Monroe St., Chicago, Ill.

"Some two years ago I noticed my old vim and vigor was gradually slipping away from me. My appetite had dwindled, and I was suffering from throbbing headaches, pains in the back and my stomach was so disordered that even the sight of food would nauseate me. I got to where I couldn't sleep well, and I felt sure that if I didn't get hold of a good tonic of some kind right away I would have a complete breakdown.

"Fortunately Tanlac proved to be just what I needed. I've taken four bottles of the medicine now and am feeling just like a man made over again. My appetite is simply great, I never have a bit of trouble digesting my food and I sleep well every night. I don't know of any better way to help people suffering like I was than to get them to take Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover's Drug Co. and Shreve's Drug Co. and by leading drug stores everywhere.—Adv.

MANY SUBJECTS ARE COVERED IN ART COLLECTION

Further Details Concerning Exhibit of Water Colors Which Will Be Shown at Art Home Here. Beginning Jan. 13.

Paintings composing an exhibit of the New York and Philadelphia Water Color clubs, and circulated by the American Federation of Arts, are now being placed in the Dr. David Strawn Memorial Art Home here ready for the opening Friday afternoon. As has already been announced, the collection will be open to the public until the evening of Jan. 19.

This attractive collection garnered from the last Exhibition of the New York and Philadelphia Water Color Clubs includes as well as landscapes and some charming figure compositions, a goodly sprinkling of illustrations. The latter do not look at all out of place in the gathering, but add a good deal of life and interest to the group. The lightness of the medium allows of an air of informality. Most of the pictures in the group are of medium, intimate size and it is to be noted how much strength, as well as charm, can be achieved within those limits.

John Carlson shows one of his characteristic, vigorous memoranda on the out doors in "Snowy Lane." "Idle Boats" by Felecie Waldo Howells is a pleasant expression of wharf life full of able draughtsmanship, conscientious observation, and subtle and sensitive weaving of values. There are four strong paintings by Fred Wagner, and three paintings by John F. Dull, whose architectural training, it seems, in no way hinders him from a free and light handling of water color. Jane Peterson is represented by "Brilliant Sunshine." There are three paintings by F. Luis Mora, colorful and debonair. There are four interesting pieces by the late Walter F. Taylor. From the west comes six painting by Birger Sandzen. The composition, simple and striking, remind one of Mr. Sandzen's effective wood engravings and perhaps there is a note in these paintings to attest to the fact that he was not only a compatriot of Zorn's, but studied with him in Sweden. Thornton Oakley three striking illustrations. Edith Emerson also shows three illustrations quite on a level in point of ability and technique with her more serious mural decorations. "The Widow" by George Wright was awarded the Beck prize of $100. Other paintings of merit are by Rene Clarke, Mary Russell, Ferrell Colton, Paul L. Gill, Georgiana Brown Harbeson, George Hart, Alfred Hayward, Charles Emile Heil, Wilmet E. Heitland C. S. Kaelin, David B. Milne, Frederick Nunn, Alice Schille. An interesting feature of the exhibition is the group of twenty paintings by M. W. Zimmerman.

This exhibition forms part of a collection of fifty-eight circulated by The American Federation of Arts in its national work in favor of American art appreciation and covers a wide range of subjects, including tapestry, brocade and wall paper.
